

ZAHOOR AHMAD

Full Stack Software Engineer | MERN Stack Developer

Location: Dera Ghazi Khan, Punjab, Pakistan

Profession: Freelance Full Stack Developer

Professional Summary

Full Stack Software Engineer with 5 years of hands-on experience designing, developing, and deploying scalable web applications. Specialized in the MERN stack with expertise in frontend development, backend architecture, database design, authentication systems, payment integrations, real-time applications, and production-grade software solutions. Successfully delivered 30+ responsive and production-ready applications across education, healthcare, and e-commerce sectors.

Technical Skills

Frontend: HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript, React.js, Next.js, Tailwind CSS

Backend: Node.js, Express.js, Fastify, RESTful APIs, JWT Authentication, RBAC

Database: MongoDB, Mongoose, Aggregation Pipelines

Real-Time: Socket.io

Tools: Docker, Redis, Git, GitHub, Postman

Professional Experience

Freelance Full Stack Software Engineer

- Developed and delivered 30+ production-grade web applications.
- Built scalable backend architectures using Node.js, Express.js, Fastify, MongoDB, Redis, and Docker.
- Developed responsive frontend applications using React.js, Next.js, JavaScript, and Tailwind CSS.
- Implemented secure authentication, authorization, payment integrations, and real-time features.
- Designed and maintained RESTful APIs for modern applications.

Featured Projects

School Management System

Student management, attendance tracking, fee management, dashboards, and role-based access control.

E-Commerce Platform

Product management, shopping cart, order processing, payment integration, and admin dashboard.

Hospital Management System

Patient records, doctor management, appointment scheduling, medical history tracking, and administration tools.

Education

Self-Taught Software Engineer

Academic Qualification: Intermediate